Our Services Breakdown (Part 1...)

Market Analysis: We are researching markets that have growing demand for wine with low competition or where the wine from our clients' region may be considered exotic or premium. Looking for opportunities in countries with increasing wine consumption, such as the USA, the UK, China, and Scandinavian countries.

International Exhibitions: Participating in industry trade fairs such as ProWein (Germany), Vinexpo (France) or Vin Italy (Italy) allows us to connect with importers and distributors and form strategic partnerships.

Networking with Local Distributors: We are targeting in collaborations with local distributors in the new markets. These partners understand the specificities of the local market and can facilitate the entry of our products smoothly and effectively.

Utilize Digital Channels and Social Media: We are taking advantage of international wine-selling e-commerce platforms or creating strong online profiles for our clients, making international sales easier.

Corporate Social Responsibility, Unique Promotion and Story-telling: We are promoting wines with a unique story or produced with sustainable methods, as these trends are very popular in specific markets. We are presenting them as products with added value and with the right story behind them.

Our Services Breakdown (Part 2...)

Strategic Marketing: Offering marketing strategy development services that include promoting products on social media, creating branding materials (labels, product stories), and advertising campaigns in new markets.

Export Services & Legal Procedures: Many small wineries struggle with export processes, customs, and import licenses. We can manage these processes, providing specialized assistance.

Organization of Tastings and Events: We can organize events and tastings in targeted markets with distributors, journalists, and consumers, promoting our clients' wines more personally and directly.

Distribution Network Management: Offering distribution network management services an, along with our distributors, and collaborations with restaurants, hotels, and wine shops in new markets.

Private Label Services: Ready to assist on this, as many wineries could eventually take advantage of "private label" opportunities for specific markets, producing wines for large chains or for exclusive use by an importer.

Market Trend Monitoring: Keep our clients informed about new trends in wine consumption and position them strategically to benefit from these trends.
